Shades of Shakti

Shades of Shakti are an intercultural group of musicians bridging the gap between traditional Indian music, classical music and Jazz. Their performance mesmerises audiences through the intricacy of the musical interplay, the propulsive energy of their melodies, the excitement of their rhythms, and the overall interconnectedness of all the performers on stage.

A collaboration that seeks to bring communities together and celebrate human diversity through music.

"The ultimate blend of authenticity and virtuosity. Their musicianship is second to none - an eclectic mix of acoustic instruments."

- Chris Gee (Black Seeds, Fly My Pretties, Anika Moa)
"Bringing together musical influences from different sides of the world to create something fresh and unique and reinforce the notion that music knows no borders... One of those rare ensembles that transcend into the sonic stratosphere"
 - Bret McKenzie (Flight of the Conchords)

Venue: Town Halls, Opera Houses, Community Centres, Churches, suitable acoustic rooms
Set up: 1.5 hours
Personnel: 4
Duration: 2 x 40 minutes sets, with interval
Price: $1200 + GST (or 70% of gross after reasonable costs whichever is greater)

friendly guidelines

- Return booking form on line at www.aotnz.co.nz under forms tab by Friday August 30 to ensure inclusion.
- Every effort will be made to satisfy demand. Flexibility may be required regarding dates.
- AOTNZ will provide transport, artists' daily allowance, promotional material, technical equipment, tour management and national/regional media exposure.
- Private, comfortable and convenient accommodation to be arranged by the presenter.
- We strongly recommend that presenters use social media and the printed material we provide to initiate a promotional campaign. It is your responsibility to forward media releases and photographs to local media. Supplied promotional material should not be modified in any way as this may contravene AOTNZ design standards and damage the brand.
- As the presenter, you will be expected to provide the venue, the agreed fee, and a brief report detailing ticket price, response to show and attendance.
- There is no cancellation fee outside four weeks of the commencement of the tour. However, within four weeks, a cancellation will require payment of a 100% penalty fee. All fees are exclusive of GST.
- Please call Steve Thomas at AOTNZ, at any stage, to clarify details of any arrangement.

Mundi Trio

Filled with joy and exuberant energy, Mundi trio have captured hearts across the land and far-flung seas.

"I don't think anyone wanted the music to end and thus an encore was demanded and happily delivered with as much energy, skill and joy as the Mundi Trio had shown throughout." Reefton

Mundi trio comprises Brazilian percussionist Ricardo Stuani, guitarist and dancer Chris Dabinett and flautist, vocalist, percussionist, dancer and composer Tamara Smith.

In this Arts on Tour performance Mundi perform a new series of compositions that weave together the two oldest instruments in human's history – flutes and percussion- into a sizzling array of duelling Brazilian/African percussion with vocal melodies soaring above.

With dances, choreographed by Tamara intertwined, these exciting new compositions lure people into an ancient memory of the pulse of life and awaken our dancing selves lurking beneath.

Venue: Theatre, hall, bar where people may feel free to dance if they wish.
Set up: 2 hours
Personnel: 3
Duration: 2 x 45 minute sets
Price: $900+GST (or 70% of gross after reasonable costs whichever is greater)
Appeal: Ethnic and World Music fans

Heti and Hope

Heti has created lyrics and tunes most of her life. Adie and Heti have been together for over thirty years both as partners in life and making music and it shows in their performance. The connection is palpable. Musically Adie skilfully weaves in and out of the lyrics and keyboard either on lead or rhythm guitar or violin, whilst Heti's soulful melodies ring out with lingering words to reflect upon. Heti loved listening to female artist growing up, Carol King, Patti Smith, Nina Simone, Billy Eilish amongst many. She also enjoyed David Bowie, Pink Floyd and Van Morrison. Her unique songs are from a personal view looking at herself and humanity, body, soul and spirit and the World we live in. She loves engaging with an audience, creating connection and a memorable evening for everyone.

Venue: Any suitable theatre, music venue, art gallery, house concert, community hall
Set up: 1.5 hours
